

Mabel Brookhart

Where the Old Savannah Flows

Published by permission of Victor Kremer Co., Chicago.
Music Section. Chicago Sunday Examiner, May 12, 1907—Pages 17-20.

WHERE THE OLD SAVANNAH FLOWS

Words & Music by MANSEL BRODERICK GREENE

Moderato

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in B-flat major, marked 'Moderato' and 'mf'. The introduction consists of two staves of piano music. The vocal melody enters on the second staff, with the lyrics: 'Way down in dear old Georgia, where the southern breezes blow, And the The time at last has come that soon will bring me back to home; And my lit - tle snow - y white home - steads ap - pear 'Long the sweet - heart wait - ing pa - tient - ly for me; With a old Sa - van - nah shore, Where I fain would be once more. 'Twas heart so full of joy That the war has spared her boy, And'. The piano accompaniment continues throughout, providing harmonic support for the vocal melody. The score is written in a single system with two staves for piano and one staff for voice.

Way down in dear old Georgia, where the southern breezes blow, And the
The time at last has come that soon will bring me back to home; And my lit - tle snow - y white home - steads ap - pear 'Long the sweet - heart wait - ing pa - tient - ly for me; With a old Sa - van - nah shore, Where I fain would be once more. 'Twas heart so full of joy That the war has spared her boy, And Copyright MCMV by Victor Kremer Co.

International copyright there I parted from my sweetheart dear, For a -- las! I had to leave my home to brought him safely back a - cross the sea. Mid war's a-larms and fearful sights, I fight in for-eign lands, Our glorious country's hon-or to up - hold, And saw my darling's face, So sad and sor-row-ful, it seem'd to me. That I when I left the home far a - way from there to roam, In vowed I'd stay at home and nev - er - more would roam, But sad - ness my dear one and I a - long the riv - er strolled. rit.

wed my love, my own true love and ev - er hap - py be. -

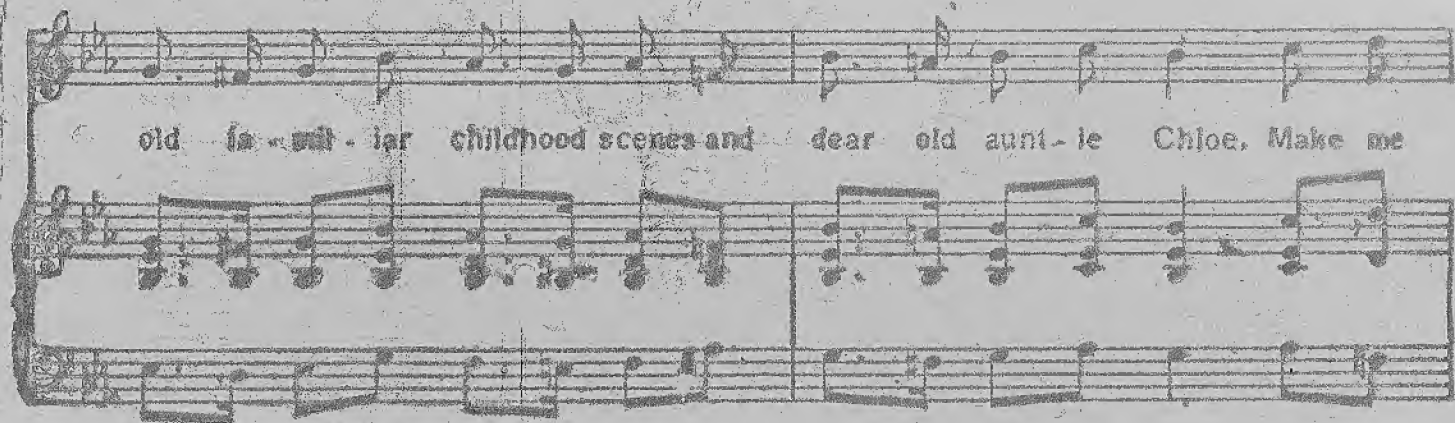

CHORUS

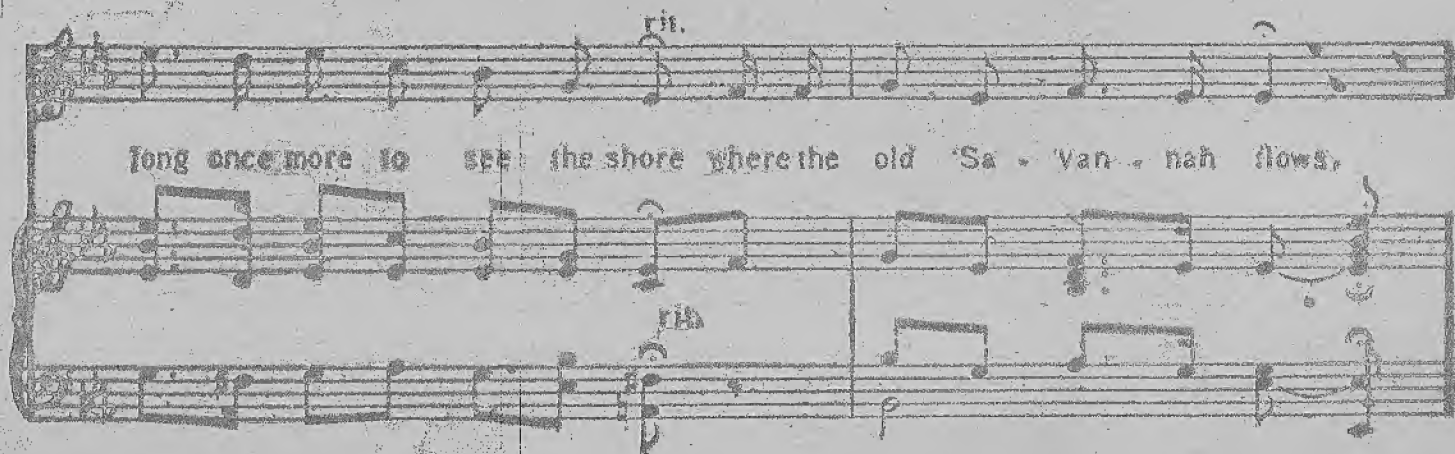

A - long the old Sa - van - nah, where we old - en used to roam And the Geor - gia sun - set shimmers o - ver ev - 'ry lit - tle home, Oh the old fa - mil - iar childhood scenes and dear old aunt - le Chloe, Make me long once more to see the shore where the old 'Sa - van - nah flows,